MOONSHINE STILL FOUND IN PASTOR'S SHED LAST NIGHT

Moonshiner, Fearing Raid of Officials, Supposed To Have Hidden "White Mule" Factory Equipment In Minister's Coal House.

Members of the "Little Brick" church who last night gathered to build a concrete walk from the parsonage to the church building, discovered a milk can and a copper coil which had evidently been used as a still in the coal house at the parsonage when they went into the building to find some boards with which to make concrete forms.

Immediately upon discovery of the equipment, the men telephoned Chief of Police Ort, who hurried to the scene and took charge of the "factory" removing it to police headquarters.

The still is a very crude affair, the boiler being a milk can thought to have been stolen from one of the many local cream stations. No barrel or coil cooler was found.

Chief Ort has for several days been on the trail of a moonshine still in the East End of the city and it is thought that this is the still he has been looking for. Realizing that the officers were on the trail of the moonshine factory, it is thought that it was dismantled and thinking that a minister's coal house would be the last place in the city officers would look for a still, it was carefully hidden there. If the workmen had not uncovered it last night, it would have probably been some time before it was discovered or it might have been reclaimed by the owner at a later date. Ownership of the still is being carefully investigated.

GREAT EMOTIONAL ACTRESS.

Alice Calhoun is one of the cleverest of the younger emotional stars before the camera. She is one of the few actresses capable of performing all types of roles and carrying away honors in each. In the "Charming Deceiver" she illustrates the power of her facial and pantomimic expression. She is able to speak volumes with her eyes and the muscles of her face. This picture will be shown at the Gem Thursday night. First class orchestra of eight pieces.

LEWIS COUNTY PRISONER HERE FOR SAFE KEEPING

Man Charged With Having Shot and Wounded Vanceburg Marshall Is Arrested at Portsmouth, Ohio.

Sheriff Thomas Bertram, of Lewis county, arrived here last night having in custody William Teets, who has been a fugitive from justice for the past several months and who was arrested at Portsmouth, Ohio, Monday and brought to Vanceburg. He was brought to Maysville on the next train for safe keeping, the jail at Vanceburg being not considered safe for his custody.

Teets is charged with having shot and wounded Marshal Hendrickson at Vanceburg on the night of the November election. It will be remembered that there was considerable trouble in Vanceburg on that night and Teets is said to have shot and wounded the town marshal with a pistol, shooting him in the head. The marshal was not seriously wounded and soon recovered.

It is charged that Teets is considered a bad man in Lewis county having been in several scrapes previous to this trouble.

BILLY SUNDAY WILL PREACH IN MAYSVILLE NEXT MONDAY

World's Greatest Evangelist Will Preach Here Monday—Arrangements To Be Made To Handle Record Breaking Crowd.

Renewing his promise to visit Maysville Billy Sunday has selected next Monday—April 18th, as the date for the visit and a local committee of ministers and business men will meet this afternoon to make complete arrangements for that visit.

The date was announced in a letter received this morning by Mr. George H. Frank from Fred W. Rapp, Mr. Sunday's business manager and a meeting of local ministers and business men has been called for the City Council chamber this evening at 3:30 o'clock at which time the place for the great meeting will be taken up and decided. There are those who favor the band stand in Market street while others favor one of the tobacco warehouses. One of these two places will be selected at today's meeting.

It is expected that the coming of this great evangelist to Maysville will attract one of the largest crowds to Maysville this city has seen in years. There are thousands of people throughout this section who have read "Billy" Sunday's sermons and who are anxious to see and hear him.

Mr. Rapp's letter to Mr. Frank follows:

"Dear Sir: I have delayed answering your letter owing to the fact that Mr. Sunday was undecided until today whether he would be able to come to Maysville next Monday, April 18th."

"After discussing the matter with him, he feels that he would like to visit your city on Monday, the 18th, arriving there at 1:20 and leaving at 3:30. He would much prefer that you make some suitable arrangement for him to speak to the largest number of people possible. In all probability, you have a building suitable for such a meeting. If not, and weather conditions being favorable, he would not object to speaking out of doors. However, it will be necessary, in either event, that a platform be provided for him."

"I presume you will recall that all that is required in the way of remuneration is a collection to be taken at the meeting and turned over to Mr. Sunday. This is the usual custom."

"Kindly advise me at once where Mr. Sunday will speak, the seating capacity of the building and any further information you may have at hand."

"I am sure that he will have a good time there and that you, too, will enjoy his visit."

April 15th is the last day for discounting telephone bills. 9-6t

CHILD MAKES CONTRIBUTION TO CHINESE FAMINE FUND.

Rev. W. F. Peters, chairman of the Chinese Famine Fund, this morning received a contribution for the Chinese Famine Fund which he considers by far the largest contribution yet made in Mason county. The contribution was 36 pennies and a check for five dollars. Accompanying the contribution was a note printed with a lead pencil which said: "Poor Little Chinese. I hope you get plenty to eat. Nancy Hinton Peed." The little lady is the bright little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Peed and the contribution represents her entire savings fund.

INTERPRETER USED IN CIRCUIT COURT TRIAL.

The case of Phillip Schlitz against his son, Mike Schlitz, is being heard in Circuit Court today. In this case the plaintiff seeks judgment for $1,000 from the defendant for labor. REPORT DISEASES, BOARD DEMANDS

Failure or Refusal to Report Communicable Diseases Will Be Punished, Says Health Board.

Louisville, April 12. — Physicians must report cases of communicable disease by their real name and not as of a less serious or noncommunicable disease or they will be cited to appear before the State Board of Health and show cause why their licenses should not be revoked, Dr. A. T. McCormack, State Health Officer, announced here today. This rule will apply both where cases of such disease are reported as cases of a noncommunicable disease and where the cases are reported as a disease of a less malignant type. Dr. McCormack also said, and the State Board of Health will make no distinction between physicians who make such false reports through ignorance and those who deliberately wish to misrepresent facts.

This announcement was made by Dr. McCormack in connection with informal notices which the State Board of Health has sent Dr. J. G. Siddons, Bowling Green, and Dr. James C. Morehead, Flat Lick, informing them that they must report cases of smallpox as smallpox. These two physicians, according to the State Health Officer, reported illness that was obviously smallpox as chickenpox, and when the state board called their attention to the fact that their reports were untrue pleaded that these reports were made honestly and because they believed the illness really was chickenpox. The state board replied that, after investigation, the local health authorities had ruled these cases were smallpox and that in all instances the decision of the local board of health, in so far as reporting and quarantining such cases is concerned, is made final by law.

MAYSVILLE HOLDS RECORD FOR LATEST FROST IN KENTUCKY

End of Frost Danger Season is earliest in Louisville and latest in Maysville for Entire State of Kentucky.

Kentuckians who wish to gamble with the elements in making plans for their gardens and planting the seeds have a nine to one chance that after May 4 Jack Frost will have finished his destruction and left the state until September 29, according to a list of probable dates of killing frosts for twenty-nine Kentucky cities compiled at the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, for the information of home gardeners. The list shows that in one year out of every ten, the last killing frost in the state occurs in the spring after May 4 at Maysville. Louisville is the earliest city in the list, the last killing frost in the spring occurring in that region after April 21 in one year out of ten. Blandville is the next city on the list, the date given being April 22, while once in every ten years Alpha and Franklin have a killing frost after April 23. Hopkinsville, Irvington and Marion have one after April 24 in every ten years, while the regions of Paducah, Owensboro and Scott are visited by the killer after April 25 once in every decade. Frankfort, Mt. Sterling, Earlinton and Williamsburg receive a visit April 26 once in the same number of years, while Richmond, Leitchfield and Middlesboro get a similar visit after April 27. Bowling Green and Shelbyville are surprised once in the same number of years after April 28. Vegetation in the region of Lexington, Anchorage and Loretto is nipped once in every decade after April 29, while St. John is scheduled for a nine-to-one chance visit from Jack Frost after April 30. Once in every ten years the region surrounding Greensburg and Edmonston are scheduled for a killing frost after May 1, while the date given for Bardonia is May 2. Eubank and Shelby cities have a destructive frost once in every decade after May 3, but by May 4 the possibilities of destruction are almost exhausted. Maysville being the only Kentucky city with a record of a severe freeze after that date.—Lexington Leader.

D. P. NEWELL IS ELECTED TREASURER OF MASON COUNTY

County Officers Chosen at Meeting of Fiscal Court Today—Contribution Made to Health Department and Last Bonds Burned.

At the regular meeting of the Mason Fiscal Court held today at the court house, the last bonds against Mason county were burned before the Commissioners and a balance in the sinking fund was used to make the last payment on the Winters' property adjoining the court house which was purchased some time ago by the county.

Mr. D. P. Newell, of the State National Bank, was unanimously elected Treasurer of Mason county for the next term of four years. He executed bond with Messrs. E. T. Kirk, John M. Hunt and W. W. Ball as surety and entered immediately upon his duties.

Reports were read from the various county officers and received. In connection with the report of Superintendent H. H. Rosser, of the County Infirmary, Dr. A. T. McCormack, Secretary of the State Board of Health, paid that officer a great compliment by saying before the court that the Mason County Infirmary was the cleanest and most sanitary of its kind he had ever seen. He says the Mason County Infirmary is the best managed in the state of Kentucky. Mr. Rosser was unanimously re-elected Superintendent for the ensuing year and his salary was fixed at $1200, an increase of $200 over his former salary. Dr. C. McGuire was re-elected infirmary physician at a salary of $250.

The Commissioners unanimously voted to contribute $3,000 for the year to the Mason County Health Department, which with the contribution from the City Council assures a continuance of this health work for another year.

OUR POLICY:

And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

PLAIN TALK TO THE ALLIES.

The note of the American Premier is in substance and character what might have been expected from a great international lawyer and statesman. Secretary Hughes wastes neither time nor words in fatuous diplomatic phraseology, but goes to the root of the matter from the very beginning.

The Japanese mandate is illegal, he says. The United States must be consulted. The Yap question is our question. Failure to sign the treaty cuts no figure. The Secretary leaves no room for misunderstanding; there is no loophole for diplomatic evasion. The allies and Japan are informed that the mandate to Japan "purports to have been confirmed and defined in its terms by the Supreme Council of the League of Nations, of the German possessions," etc., but that the United States refused to recognize the legal validity of such action. The rights accruing to the United States as a participant in the victory of the Allied and Associated Powers definitely are urged and stressed as a question not open to serious debate. We stand by our right to share in the fruits of such victory, and there can be "no valid or effective disposition of the overseas possessions of Germany, now under consideration, without the consent of the United States."

With clear and unequivocal insistence the Secretary points out that as this Government never has vested either the Supreme Council or the League of Nations with any authority to bind the United States nor to act in its behalf, there has been no opportunity for any decision that could be deemed to affect the rights of the United States.

This is reasoning from which there is no escape. We have ceded or surrendered nothing to Japan nor to any other nation.

The note is one more powerful contribution to the great state papers of the past four or five years, and it ranks with the ablest among them. It breathes not only the spirit of Americanism, but is notice to the world that right and justice must prevail in international relations. It is free from ambiguity or obscurity. It says in understandable terms that this nation will not tolerate imposition nor suffer any abatement of its rights as a participant in the victory of the Allied Powers.

Specifically the Secretary with unanswerable logic tears to shreds the contention of the Japanese Government with reference to its mandatory claims, and gives significant intimation that the United States—not a member of the League of Nations—refused to recognize any decree or arrangement sanctioned by it which would affect the interests of this republic.

Japan has sought to "put one over" on this Government, but she has been called, and her game of bluff now should be ended.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NOTABLE LITERARY CENTENARIES OF 1921.

Nineteen hundred and twenty-one is particularly rich in literary centenaries, says a correspondent in the Manchester Guardian. Flaubert and Dostoevsky represent France and Russia, respectively, in fiction, and Britain has Wilkie Collins, Whyte Melville and, if one may venture to add her name to such an illustrious company, Miss Charlotte Maria Tucker, dear to some of us in childhood days as A. L. O. E.

In poetry the great name of Dante is supreme; it will be the 600th anniversary of his death in September. This year also sees the birth centenary of Baudelaire, while we have such a variety of poets as Dora Greenwell, Frederick Locker-Lampson and John Skinner, the last named having been born 200 years ago and called by Burns the writer of the "best Scottish song ever Scotland saw."

Sir Samuel Baker, Heinrich Barth and Sir Richard Burton made a notable trilogy of travelers, and among painters there are Noel Paton and Ford Madox Brown. Of religious writers, preachers, teachers and church dignitaries there are George Dawson, Archbishop Temple, Dean Bradley (who proper the walls of Westminster Abbey for posterity), and Henri Frederic Amiel. And in what other company shall one include Marcus Aurelius, said to have been born in 1521, and martyred twenty-five years later?

Journalism is represented by Hepworth Dixon and J. M. F. Ludlow, the latter being the propagandist through the press of Christian socialism. Golfers will be glad to revive the memory of Tom Morris and educationists that of Edward Tring, while the fighting services are represented by Lord Alcester.

REMARKABLE REMARKS.

There would be peace in Ireland tomorrow if England would simply refrain from her aggressions — Eamonn de Valera, Irish president.

Democracy has got to rest on a well-educated country life. That means our public schools.—Dr. James R. Angell, President-elect of Yale University.

The principal reason people fall in love is because they are so constituted, physically and mentally, that it is the normal, natural thing to do.—Dr. Halbert H. Britain, Professor of Philosophy.

Our modern dances are about three stories deeper in hell than the movies.—Wilbur F. Crafts, head of the International Reform Bureau.

Brunets are more intellectual than blonds, but it has been proved that blonds excel as discoverers, adventurers and organizers.—Albert E. Wiggam, heredity expert.

PA FINISHED IT.

A bright pupil in the Falmouth City School was required by his teacher to write an essay of 300 words of the new automobile his father had just purchased. After considerable thinking the youngster wrote how his father had bought the machine, and a short time later, started away with the family, going eight mile an hour, and then, unfortunately, go struck in the mud. The boy concluded his "piece" thus: "I have now used 100 words, and pa spoke the other 200 when he had to walk back through the mud." —Falmouth Outlook.

THIS YOUNG MOTHER

Tells Childless Women What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Millston, Wis. — "I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are very fond of children and for a considerable time after we married I feared I would not have any owing to my weak condition. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I have a nice strong healthy baby girl. I can honestly say that I did not suffer much more when my baby was born than I used to suffer with my periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound years ago. I give all the credit to your medicine and shall always recommend it very highly." — Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wisconsin.

How can women who are weak and sickly expect or hope to become mothers of healthy children? Their first duty is to themselves. They should overcome the derangement or debility that is dragging them down, and strengthen the entire system, as did Mrs. Janssen, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and then they will be in a position to give their children the blessing of a good constitution.

New York Letter

New York. — An artist CAN be a salesman, too. J. Monniksdam, from Holland, is out to prove it. He arrived in New York the other day on a trip around the world, on which he is to make his own expenses—traveling and living—as he goes, by selling his own pictures. If he succeeds in doing it he has a fortune of $50,000 coming to him from a wealthy Hollander who is interested in helping young artists and offered the purse for the trip. The only condition is that the artist must not sell to dealers or agents. In London, Monniksdam obtained an audience with King George who commissioned him to paint several pictures. The money from these was sufficient to pay the expenses of him and his wife to New York. Yes, his wife has so much confidence in him that she has started around the world with him on the more or less precarious basis.

Who—above the age of eighteen—has forgotten "The Merry Widow Waltz"? There was a time when it was difficult to hear anything else than that swinging song from the musical comedy of the same name. And now it is to be revived. It will be the "Floradora" of next season. How about the hats? Do you remember them, too? The cartwheel sailors?

In the spring New York's fancy is turning not at all lightly to thoughts of export trade. However much the city recognizes the interest of the whole country in this matter, it is wont to take until itself a very special part in it. That's not because New York is over-valued; but as the nation's greatest export shipping point, it feels a proprietary interest in it all. Consequently it is cheering up considerable right now. There have been some pretty lean months for the exporters and they are about due for a cheering. But just as the total freight handled by the railroads is an unerring standard for measuring domestic business, so the amount handled by the foreign freight forwarders unfailingly points to the export situation. And they have started to hang out the fair weather flag. Lewis J. Stone, president of one of the large freight-forwarding companies, said the other day that his clients who have been reporting "nothing doing" are now inquiring for freight rates; and that bookings and reservations already made by his concern indicate a steady growth of business within the next few months. It means that the foreign trade convention to be held in Cleveland in May can take an hour or two off from their study of how to improve conditions and spend it in mutual cheer for a glimpse of the upgrade.

Margaret Anglin's presentation of "The Trial of Joan of Arc" at the Century Theater on Easter Sunday was such a tremendous success that she has decided to put it on for a limited engagement at some Broadway playhouse in the near future.

It's fortunate for some good Americans that the registering-to-vote ceremony doesn't include the test given Harry Weicke in the naturalization court the other day. He was classed as an enemy alien during the war and had finally reached the proud point of being examined for his final citizenship papers after considerable delay. The judge asked him, as a final question, to sing "The Star Spangled Banner," and he sang it clear through—words and all, while 200 people stood and gave him the sort of applause at the end that he deserved.

A children's theater is the plan being pushed by an interested group of New York women. They are planning to bring about the construction or leasing of some suitable place, where plays and motion pictures, dances and other entertainments solely for children, may be given.

SUPREME COURT TAKES HAND IN IMPORTANT CASES

Holding of Supreme Court In Newspaper Case Is of Vital Importance to the Entire Nation.

Washington, D. C. — "A decision of the Federal Courts holding that the Postmaster General has no authority to exclude a publication permanently from the mails because one issue of it contained objectionable matter, together with a suit for damages that has now been brought against the former Postmaster General by the injured publisher, serves to emphasize the seriousness of the usurpation of governing power by departments or bureaus," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Almost coincident with this decision and the filing of the damage suit came the admission by attorneys of the Wilson administration that they collected under erroneous rulings income taxes that will aggregate not less than $100,000,000, and possibly many times that amount. These taxes collected unlawfully by a Democratic administration must be repaid under a Republican administration. Taxpayers will receive some measure of reimbursement in the repayment of the money but that will not entirely recompense them for the injury they have suffered. The government will refund only the actual cash collected; the taxpayer is out the amount he could have earned if he had kept the money in his business. The Supreme Court recently upheld the Internal Revenue Bureau in some of its rulings but attorneys admitted they were not entitled to a decision in the matter to which reference has just been made.

"The issue in the newspaper case is of far more importance than that in the income tax case, for the preservation of the right of free speech is of more vital importance to the people than the loss of a few millions to a few individuals. There seems to be no question that the offending newspaper had published material which was in violation of the postal laws. It may be assumed that there was justification for postal officials to exclude that particular issue from the mails. But the Postmaster General took it upon himself to exclude the publication permanently from the mails, thus practically destroying investment it represented. Such a power should not be lodged in the hands of the Postmaster General or of any other one official to impose a penalty so severe. It is a fundamental principle of American Government that a man shall have a right to trial by a jury of his peers. Such right was not observed in the proceedings conducted by the postmaster General.

"There are, of course, some minor instances where trial by jury may not be practicable or desirable but in the main the only safe course for a free people to pursue is to guard zealously the right of trial by jury as one of the guarantees of freedom from oppression.

"Policies set forth in the Republican platform and in the speeches of the Republican candidates indicate an intention to abandon the policy of usurpation of power by departments and bureaus."

SLAYER GETS PARDON TO CARE FOR AGED FATHER.

Frankfort, Ky. — Evans Cash, murdered, serving a life term, from Laurel county, who would be eligible to parole in two months was pardoned by Governor Morrow after seven years in the Reformatory.

The Governor explained his act of clemency by saying "Cash has a clear prison record. His father is a man 65 years old, completely broken in health and unable to work. He has an afflicted brother, who has been for more than twenty years deformed with rheumatism so that he cannot work. This old man and his boy are on the absolute mercy of neighbors. Cash can support them."

UNCONSCIOUS FOR DAY FROM BASE BALL BLOW.

Princeton. — Hit in the head by a pitched ball while at batting practice with the Princeton high school baseball team. Rumesay Taylor a senior classman did not regain consciousness for twenty-four hours. Taylor was struck behind the ear by a ball thrown by Frederick McDonald, a classmate. He is still suffering intensely with pains in his head and physicians fear the injury will result in complications.

TWO BABIES INJURED WHEN MACHINES CRASH.

Louisville, Ky. — Margaret Rhea, four months old, and her brother, Clinton, nineteen months old, were thrown to the street when the automobile of their father, Virgil Rhea, Fisherville, Ky., and a jitney bus operated by Omer Jeffries came together. The boy suffered cuts and bruises on the head and body. He was taken to the City hospital.

USE OF MILK INCREASES.

Forty-four gallons of milk is used by each person in the United States annually, according to estimates made by the Dairy Division of the United States Department of Agriculture. This estimate refers to whole milk and does not include that which is consumed in the form of ice cream, cheese, and butter. The amount is about twice as much as that used in 1890 when the per capita consumption was approximately 22 gallons. The dairy specialists point out that the increase in the use of milk in the last thirty years is as great as that in the preceding 280 years.

The present-day consumption of milk in the United States, they say, is equal to about one pint per day, or as much as two small glasses. That is not a great amount when it is known that it includes not only the milk that is used for drinking, but also that used in cooking. This is a small amount compared to the per capita consumption in some European countries. In Sweden and Switzerland, for example, nearly 70 gallons are used by each person annually.

A high value has always been placed on cows in many European countries, and history records a campaign conducted by Julius Caesar in central Europe where he found German tribes living almost exclusively on milk. In order to provide pastures for their cows they forcibly resisted the settlement of any people near them.

In relating the growth of the dairy industry in this country, the department specialists say that in pioneer days each family kept its own cow. The denser the population became the more important it was to have a well regulated and ample commercial supply of milk. Gradually the number of cows increased and in time a dairy business grew up in various sections. The development of modern methods in the distribution of milk, with economic and sanitary handling, has been closely accompanied by the larger use of this food, they say.

Much of the milk now used in cities comes many miles, and recently improved methods have made it possible to ship it for long distances in refrigerator cars. At the National Dairy Show in Chicago in 1919, milk shipped from the Pacific Coast took first prize in the market milk competition with the highest score ever given to milk in recent years.

Cities have always used a smaller amount of milk in proportion to the number of people than general farming communities, the statistics show. For example, Philadelphia reached the rate of 23 gallons per capita in 1905, which was 15 years later than the country at large reached a consumption of 22 gallons. There are, however, many agricultural and non-agricultural rural districts where cows are not kept and where modern methods of milk distribution are not equal to most cities. The people in such places have to depend on canned milk of various kinds, and this, the dairymen say, is an exceedingly valuable means of supplying a need which 20 or 30 years ago could not have been supplied at all.

TREE MORE CEMETERIES TO BE VISITED

Government Will Remove American Bodies From Three Big French Army Burial Grounds.

Work in the actual exhumation of bodies of the soldier dead interred in the Suresnes Cemetery, Belleau Wood Cemetery, and the Argonne Cemetery will begin after May 1 next. Only those bodies from these cemeteries will be removed to this country where requests for their return have been filed with the Cemeterial Division, Office of the Quartermaster General of the Army, Washington, D. C. These cemeteries, together with the Flanders Field Cemetery at Bony, Department of the Aisne, have been designated as permanent American cemeteries for the interment of the dead not to be returned to this country. This will in no way affect the previous requests of relatives for the return of remains to this country either for private burial or burial in national cemeteries.

Major General H. L. Rogers, the Quartermaster General, announces: "Preparations are now being made to begin work in early summer. The necessary supplies and labor are being concentrated near these cemeteries, and the department expects the work to be greatly expedited when exhumations begin. The relatives of the American soldier dead have been very patient in waiting for the return of the remains of their loved ones. The War Department has sought at all times to acquaint them with the magnitude of the task as well as the many difficult and unforeseen obstacles that were and are being confronted in this task."

The phrase, "living on tick," dates back to the seventeenth century, when a tradesman's bill was known as a ticket.

VALUE OF CONDEMNED LAND IS INCREASED.

Louisville, Ky.—Two suits in which owners of land condemned for the site of Camp Knox claimed more than the price fixed by the government appraisers were settled in jury trials before Judge Walter Evans. George Johnson, whose property was appraised at $5,750, was awarded $8,000 by the verdict, and Wenzel Orthobler was awarded $10,500 instead of the $8,965 fixed by appraisal. Six more cases are to be tried.

PROTEST INCREASE IN COAL SHIPMENT RATES.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 12. — Discussion of a protest against the proposed increase in rates of 25 cents a ton on coal shipped to Cincinnati from Southern Kentucky fields, was the purpose of a meeting called here yesterday by J. C. Venning, chairman of the Central Coal Committee. Mr. Venning presided at the meeting which was attended by coal operators and officials of the coal mines in South-eastern Kentucky.

The differential rate between the Kentucky fields on the Louisville & Nashville railroad and rates from the West Virginia fields on the C. & O. and Norfolk & Western as present is 35 cents a ton, in favor of the Kentucky fields.

Other interests desire the restoration of the old-time differential of ten cents or an increase in the rate for coal shipped from the Kentucky fields to $2 a ton. The West Virginia rate is $2.10 a ton.

Richmond, Ky. — The flour mill of the Paint Lick Milling Company, twelve miles from here, was destroyed by fire, of undetermined origin. The loss is estimated at $3,000.

KENTUCKY OPPOSED TOWNSEND FEDERAL AID ROAD BILL

Proposed Federal Road Bill Would Benefit East But Would Be Detriment To South.

Frankfort, Ky., April 12.—Action of Congress on the 1922 appropriations for Federal aid and its decisions as to policy, whether to enact the Townsend bill to continue Federal aid, is holding the attention of the State Highway Commission.

Chairman Green Garrett will go to Washington soon to assist in working for a Federal aid bill. The Townsend bill, which would apply Federal money to a strictly Federal highway scheme to be maintained by the Government, is backed solidly by the East and is opposed by the West and South. Kentucky would share little directly in its benefit.

With $40,000,000 worth of work laid out by Federal aid projects, the commission is doubtful, Joe Biggs, highway engineer, said, whether the United States Senior Highway Engineer will approve letting any more contracts outside projects already started until Congress appropriates more money. This was told several delegations before the commission today.

YOUTHFUL BANK THIEF SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR

Judge Landis Sentences Young Bank Clerk Whose Case Caused Sharp Criticism of Judge.

Chicago, April 12. — Francis J. Carey, the nineteen-year-old bank cashier of Ottawa, Ill., whose theft of $96,000 last November was followed by criticism of Judge Landis, when the latter permitted the youthful culprit to return home pending sentence, was Monday sentenced by Judge Landis to serve one year in the National Training School for Boys at Washington.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Landis made no comment on the case, or did he give Carey any advice as to future conduct. The boy, accompanied by his mother, was not visibly moved, although Mrs. Carey seemed to be struggling to suppress her emotions.

Carey's case, which aroused considerable interest even before his appearance in court, led to the criticism of Judge Landis' procedure. He disappeared from the bank and officials of the institution at first believed he had been the victim of robbers. Securities amounting to $40,000 found in an alley in the rear of the bank building strengthened this theory and led to the belief that he had been imprisoned in the vault.

Baffled by a time lock, the bank officials had the doors burned open. Carey was not found. The search finally led to a farm seven miles from Ottawa, where he was arrested.

EX-KAISERIN DIES IN HOLLAND.

Berlin, April 12. — Reception here of the news of the former Kaiserin's death showed that the deceased Empress retained the affection of the people. She had won the German hearts by her model qualities as a wife and mother, rather than by any attributes of royalty.

Special sheets, though containing only the announcement in one sentence, were sold in the streets as fast as they could be printed. At several private buildings the flag in the old colors of black, white and red was flown at half mast.

It is announced that the body of the former Empress will be brought from Holland to Germany for interment at Potsdam in the so-called classic temple adjoining the new palace in the Park of Sans Souci.

NATURE TELLS YOU
As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak, Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys. Ask your neighbor. Maysville people testify to their worth.

Charles Kennan, retired farmer, 81 Wood street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several different times within the last few years and never had them fail to do me good. My kidneys were in a mighty bad shape the first time I used them. The secretions I passed were bloody and burned terribly. My back kept me in misery during the time the attack lasted and I was feeling generally run down. I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a couple boxes of them. This medicine reached my case at once and cured me up in good shape. I have always relied upon Doan's ever since. I use a few now and then to regulate my kidneys and they never fail me at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kennan had.
